Weddings

Crowland Abbey is an ancient parish church on the Lincolnshire/Cambridgeshire border dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Bartholomew and Saint Guthlac. Poems have been performed, pictures painted and tales told about the Abbey's rich history and enchanting stones. Its Romantic ruins continue to delight the eye and imagination. However, Crowland Abbey is more than an ancient ruin; it is a living church that welcomes people from all over the world.

The Abbey will be delighted to receive you and your partner through its ancient doors on your wedding day. We welcome you to stay after your ceremony, pose for wedding photographs among the picturesque ruins and celebrate your marriage with friends and family in this most beautiful of churches. N.B. Church of England eligibility criteria must be met. Contact the Reverend Charles Brown (01733 211763)

Church Tours

Crowland Abbey offers tours of the church and abbey ruins. Explore the history of this ancient church with an experienced guide.

Cost per person: £5 (minimum of four people per tour)

Larger groups can be accommodated upon request.

Film & Recording Location

Crowland Abbey is steeped in history, myth and mystery, all captured in its mesmerising ruins and ancient stones. The Abbey has inspired artists and poets for centuries and continues to do so to this day.

The Abbey is available for hire for a variety of uses, from photo shoots and feature films, to music videos and sound recordings.

We are registered as a film location through Sarah Eastel, one of the UK's leading film agencies, working with English Heritage and other principal property custodians.
